

LEGISLATIVE CONNECTION

OBJECTIVE

Legislative Connections aims to increase member engagement in government, both for FCCLA-related goals and general advocacy skills. Members can reach out to local legislators or speak to state level legislators at FCCLA Day at the Capitol. During the course of this project, members advocate for Georgia FCCLA and the Family and Consumer Sciences field, turning the experience into a meaningful event for students and a way to have real governmental impact.

PARTICIPATION IDEAS

Option 1 → Connect with local representatives
Members can present to their local government or invite representatives to their chapter activities
Option 2 → FCCLA Day at the Capitol
Members can attend and engage with the opportunities offered at FCCLA Day at the Capitol

RESOURCES

For the local level, connect your local governments!
For FCCLA Day at the Capitol, visit
<https://www.georgiafccla.org/fccla-day-at-the-capitol>

BENEFITS

Increased awareness – Members can spread FCCLA's message to influential members of the country's government, spreading knowledge of the FCS field.
Advocacy development – In communicating directly with the government, members learn to advocate for FCCLA, Family and Consumer Sciences, and themselves.

ALEX STEVENS

Vice President of Competitive Events

If you have any questions, please contact Alex at competitiveevents@gafcccla.com

“Understanding that the power of the student voice has always been a crucial part of politics empowers our members to change the world.”